Appalachian Grazing Conference

What is the Appalachian Grazing Conference?

The Appalachian Grazing Conference (AGC) is an event that is held every two years and offers informative presentations and demonstrations for livestock producers and professionals. Participants can expect to hear from speakers from around the country on strategies designed to increase their knowledge, profits, and profencies.

The conference theme this year is:
Managing your Farm for Health and Safety

Conference Locations

WVU Reymann Memorial Farm
April 30, 2026

WV State Fair Grounds
May 1, 2026

WV State Farm Museum
May 2, 2026

What's in it for vendors?

Vendors will have the opportunity to choose from three different West Virginia locations this year.

This variety of locations will advantage vendors who plan to table at multiple Appalachian Grazing Conference (AGC) events to connect with farmers and other attendees more effectively, reaching different audiences at each conference date.
